Argentina, Chile, and Uruguay

Vanessa Guibert Heitner, Limitless Argentina, Buenos Aires

An Argentine native and former professor of Latin American literature who moved to Buenos Aires five years ago, Heitner takes particular delight in introducing travelers to her country's cultural and ecological diversity, from the trendy neighborhoods of B.A. (where she has entrée into artists' studios and private galleries) to the wine regions of Salta and Mendoza (where she can arrange private tastings). Her sophisticated sensibilities, taste, and eye for value also extend into Chile and Uruguay (202-536-5812; vanessa@limitlessargentina.com; limitlessargentina.com, Argentina, $850*; Chile and Uruguay, $950*)
